FROM YOUR EDITOR

By Dennis Helmer

Its a sunny seventy degrees here in New Jersey as I compose the final edition of JERSEYana for 1998.....and I'd like to take this time to wish all of you and your families a very happy and healthy holiday season. I like to use this time of the year to review my collection/accumulation of past finds, and to relive that moment of discovery when I acquired a particularly desirable item. It is a time to enjoy and share our collections, and to take a break from these hectic hi-tech times.

It may also be a time to do a little research on New Jersey State Celebrations as an aid to gathering material for our upcoming issues of JERSEYana. As mentioned, this issue will present exonumia related to the NJ TERCENTENARY of 1964.I located and purchased the medal featured in this issue along with the description of the components. I deliberately picked the "easy one" first to give all our members enough time to research and identify exonumia related to the earlier state celebrations.

I plan to "forge ahead" with the plan to cover the Bicentennial in the next issue; but I need your help!!! There is a very good possibility (as pointed out to me by one of our more active members) that there was no state celebration because our nation was involved in the horrific conflict of the Civil War. I plan to visit the Trenton library for further information.

The publication schedule for the upcoming 1999 season of JERSEYana is:

1999	CLOSING DATE	ISSUE # / DATE
JAN-FEB-MAR	Jan 15	92	FEBRUARY15
APR-MAY-JUN	Apr 15	93	MAY 15
JUL-AUG-SEPT	Jul 15	94	AUGUST 15
OCT-NOV-DEC	Oct 15	95	NOVEMBER 15

Please keep sending me your articles so we can continue to share the wealth of knowledge that exists in our Society.

It will soon be that time of the year again. Renew now for 1999 before the holiday season slows you down!!! Currently, your mailing label should have "98" or "LM" on it. If it reads "97" you are delinquent. Please take a moment to renew your NJES membership. Send your $6.00 dues, payable to NJES, to:

Al Zaika, PO BOX 65, Bellmawr, NJ 08099

Renewals continue to trickle in. Currently, we have 36 life members with 50 regular members paid up for 1998 and only 13 who have not paid yet. If your label shows a "97", we have you listed as delinquent and this is the last issue of *JERSEY*ana that you will receive. Please let me or Al Zaika know if you think a mistake has been made. Please renew soon.

Thanks.

FIRST CLASS

THE NEW JERSEY TERCENTENARY MEDALLION
1964

Dr. Mason W. Gross, President of Rutgers, and Chairman of the Tercentenary's Fine Arts Commission, authorized a nationwide search for a sculptor to design the Medallion. Entries from 56 sculptors from 14 states were submitted, judged anonymously, and the winner was Anthony Notaro of Wayne Township, New Jersey.

Medallic Art Company struck the Medallion, and the detailed description that accompanied the Medallion reads as follows:

" A ribbon inscribed with "People, Purpose, Progress" wraps around a large Tercentenary symbol overshadowing figures that represent New Jersey Industry and Agriculture on the obverse side of the Tercentenary medallion.

On the reverse side, above the date 1664, the totems of New Jersey's three Lenni Lenape Indian sub-tribes form a stylized totem pole. The wild turkey of the Unalachtigo is at the top, the wolf of the Minsi is in the middle, and the turtle of the Unami is at the bottom.

At the base of the totem are two figures representing the Proprietorships of East and West Jersey. A Cavalier faces east, a detail of the seal of the Eastern Division of New Jersey at his feet; he symbolizes the Court of King Charles II.
The strong influence of the Society of Friends in West Jersey is symbolized by a Quaker figure facing west, a detail of the seal of the council of Proprietors, Western Division of New Jersey, at his feet.

Along the rim are 21 figures illustrating New Jersey's contributions to the nation and the world. They are separated by 21 TERCENTENARY SYMBOLS --one for each county in the State.

OBVERSE

REVERSE

The figures are described on the reverse side of this sheet.

THE 21 NEW JERSEY TERCENTENARY SYMBOLS

The purple violet, the State flower

A leaf from the State tree, the red oak

The eastern Goldfinch, the state bird

A light bulb for Thomas Alva Edison's invention at Menlo Park

A vase for the chine-pottery industry founded in Salem County in the 18th Century

A lighthouse for the nation's oldest continually operated lighthouse, at Sandy Hook

A crossbar and football for the first football game, played by Princeton and Rutgers Universities in 1869

The Princeton and Rutgers seals

The State House dome in Trenton

An atom for the State's nuclear contributions

A steamboat for John Fitch's invention

A striped bass, a diver, and a sailboat for New Jersey recreation and tourism

A transistor, invented in New Jersey in 1948

A suspension bridge typifying a State nearly surrounded by water

A cow and a rooster symbolizing the State's agriculture

A jet airliner, portending New Jersey's increasing role in international jet travel

A church, symbolic of 300 years of freedom of conscience for Jerseymen

A beaker and test tube, emblematic of New Jersey's role in chemical research and as "Medicine Chest of the Nation"
